"It's just so bittersweet to leave Sacred Heart because we all have to leave each other. We're all more than prepared to get on with our lives, but I'm not prepared to say good-bye to this class. The class of 2011 will always have a special place in my heart."

- Kevyn Montesi, Class of 2011

Thank you everyone who has been there for me over the last four years. Thanks to all my friends who made high school so fun. A special thanks to Dad, Mom, Gina, and Fred, for supporting my decisions in life. Kyle, Mikaila, Talia, and Hailey, you guys have been great brothers and sisters. Finally, thank you, Ryan. You have always been there for me as support, guidance, and mostly, a best friend.

They've said high school is the best four years of our lives; I hope not. I hope it's only a wonderful beginning to a promising future; a future made possible with the help of all my teachers. I may not have always been in your class, but I was always learning. To all my friends, especially Danielle, Marissa, and Laura, your friendship has meant the world to me and you have given me memories I will cherish for as long as I live.

To my parents, there aren't enough words in the English language to express my endless love and gratitude. To my sister Erica, thanks for being both an amazing sister and someone I could always lean on. I love you. To my friends, thanks for being absolutely ridiculous with me whenever I needed a laugh. I love every single one of you. Thanks to the teachers and administrators whose lessons I will always carry with me. Best of luck to everyone in the class of 2011, you betcha' bottom dollar we made it!

To my parents, thank you for teaching me more than I could ever learn in school. Thank you to all the teachers who contributed to my education, whether directly or indirectly. To Kaitlyn, Zach, Sean, Liam, Evan, and everyone else, my sanity has emerged from high school largely intact and I have you to thank for that. Good luck to the entire Class of 2011!

I can't believe it's already over. These have been the best four years; I wouldn't trade them for anything. Mom and Dad, thank you for everything, I'm so happy you made me come to Sacred Heart. Kristina and Ronnie, you guys are the best, you've both been such great role models; and to all my friends, you guys are awesome! I couldn't have done it without you; our memories will last a lifetime. It's not goodbye, it's see ya later!

Mom and Dad, I cannot thank you enough for the opportunities you have given me. Thank you for working hard to send me to a great school to get a great education. You always push me to do better and believe in me. I will take all that you have taught me and use it to become a better person. I love you. Erin and Lauren, I know you can't wait for me to leave so you can have my room, but I want to thank you for not only being two awesome sisters, but two of my best friends. I will miss having you around every day. I also want to thank all of my friends for being there through the good times and bad. Although we are going our separate ways I know we will always remain close. Lastly, I would like to thank all my teachers and coaches for helping and preparing me for this next step in my life. Thanks again and good luck to the Class of 2011!

I can't believe after thirteen years at Sacred Heart I'm finally graduating. Mom and Dad, you have been there for me when I needed you; your support and advice has helped me more than you'll ever know. CJ, I still miss our car rides to school and believe it or not I'll always look up to you. Thanks for calling me out for my math skills since the first grade. Erin, thanks for having my back no matter what and conveniently, the same life; you'll always be my best friend. To all my friend, thanks for everything. Good luck to the Class of 2011!

My four years at Sacred Heart have had their ups and downs. I haven't always put in my full effort, but I would like to thank those who supported me anyways. To my teachers, who had to put up with me: thank you. If I could do it all again, I wouldn't let you down. To my parents, who I drove crazy: I can't accurately express in words how lucky I am to have you in my life. I wish I could have done more for you. To my friends: thanks for making high school bearable. To the Class of 2011: \m/

Twelve years at Sacred Heart have gone by so fast and the last couple years have really been the best. I've loved growing as an artist and discovering who I am as a person. I have my wonderful parents to thank for giving me this opportunity. I'd also like to thank my teachers for helping me along the way (and Mr. Dalton, whose life quotes will probably help me at some point...maybe). Senior year is by far the best and I recommend embracing every moment of it because it won't last forever.

Mom and Dad, thanks for putting up with eighteen years of nonsense and for always supporting me. Kylie, I adore you and I'm lucky to have such an amazing sister. Giardi, I'm an Ice Cube for life. You are the best teacher I've had; thank you for all that you've done for me. Dalton, thanks for making me laugh and for always knowing exactly what to say. IT'S SO FLUFFY! Dr. Gallo, Mr. Boccalini, and Dan, I'll miss you. Speech team, you're my second family. I'll love you forever, whether you like it or not. Friends, I couldn't have asked for better people to spend my high school years with. Class of 2011, good luck and God bless!

Thank you for coming to every soccer game to see me play, every basketball game to see me sit on the bench, and everything else in between. I wouldn't be half the person I am today without your love and support. To my friends, I don't think I would have survived high school with such happy thoughts and fond memories if you guys weren't there with me every day. Thanks so much for always being there for support or comic relief. Love you all.

I'd really like to thank my family, friends, and the teachers who believed in me, even when I didn't believe in myself. I owe you one. Mum and Dad, thanks for dealing with my crap. I love you, you're amazing. Remember Mum, two down, one to go. Good luck! Brandon and Lilly, thanks for keeping things interesting and never failing to make me laugh. Oh, Lilly, looks like you've finally got the house to yourself. Wreak some havoc, little girl. And to the people I'm lucky enough to call my friends, you're the best. Thanks for the amazing memories. I came to Sacred Heart as a freshman and after four years I'm finally graduating. I'd like to give credit where credit is due. To all my friends who have been there for me, thank you. I will always remember the good times we've spent together. And to all the teachers who I've had, thanks for putting up with me. I am sure that I have learned something from you and will carry it through a lifetime. I wish the best to the Class of 2011.

After twelve long years at good old Sacred Heart I can't believe we're all finally here. Mom and Dad, thanks so much for all you have done to make sure I've always had the best. I don't know if I'll ever be able to fully repay you or show you how grateful I am. Also, huge thanks to Stevie - I couldn't have asked for a better little, but bigger, brother. And last but not least, big shout out to my bests - Katie, Erika, Ali, Jacqui, and Amanda: elementary and high school wouldn't have been the same without you girls, it's good to know I'll always have a solid group of friends to fall back on. Congratulations Class of 2011!
I know we're all onto bigger and better things.

These past 13 years at Sacred Heart have been the best years of my life. I'd like to start out by thanking Mom, Molly, Flippity, and Dad for giving me that boost of confidence whenever I was down. I'd like to also thank my friends for sticking by my side at all times, no matter how obnoxious I was being. But to be honest, I wouldn't have made it through if it weren't for the help and guidance of my teachers and administrators, past and present. Without you guys in my life, I wouldn't be the person I am today, plus I wouldn't have had anyone to sing or rap about. Also, a huge shout out to Mr. John Fahey and the SHHS Maintenance Staff for having to put up with me for those 30 hours. Thanks again everyone!

Within my 13 years at SH I've learned that you win some, you lose some, to never ask Mr. Recchia to repeat a question, what it means to be a man from Giardi's standpoint, to feel math, that I will never be ready to hear the Spaghetio story, that Ms. Coletta is a convincing fire alarm, that watching American Idol is sinful, MERMEDS, sometimes tissues are filled with Purell rather than snot, and when you say something stupid, laugh at yourself. Mom, Grandma, and Willie: thanks for always being there. I love you to the moon and back again. To all my friends, you are my second family and mean the world to me. Thanks for being so darn comical. Thank you to everyone who has made my high school journey a memorable one. People say treasure your moments because in reality time really does fly by. First, I would like to thank my teachers; you guys have given me everything and I appreciate all the hard work and time you have given me over the past four years, and thank you to my best friends; you guys mean the world to me and I don't know what I would do without you guys. You've always been there; I'll miss you guys<3. And to my brothers and sisters, I love you all so much; thanks for all your support and good luck in everything you do now and in the future. Also thank you to my Nana; you are my hero and I love you! also I miss you Papa<3 and lastly to my Mom and Dad; you have given me the world and I wouldn't be who I am today if I didn't have you guys, I love you both so much! So Class of 2011, "don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened" good luck guys; it's been a heck of a ride.

From the bottom of my heart, I would like to thank my Mom and Dad for making my BC High, and Sacred Heart education possible. I would also like to thank my grandfather, Arthur Flaherty, for enhancing not only my education, but that of all my peers. I am eternally grateful for my family's support through my life and to know that they will always have a hand on my shoulder to guide me. I would like to show my appreciation to my all my friends and notably my closest friends, Susannah and Patrick. Thank you to all my family! I would also like to thank all the teachers here at SHHS. You guys have taught me so much throughout the years. Even though you taught me great things in the classroom about books and such, the most important things you taught me were life lessons. To my mom, thank you for all you have done for me; you have been great. To my dad, I hope you keep fighting your sickness and are well soon. And to the rest of my family, thank you! I pray that as I go on in life, the lessons I learned here stick with me and that I may become a better person because of these lessons no matter what I go on and do with the rest of my life. I will always remember all the friends I made here and I hope I don't lose them! Go Seniors 2011!

It's been an interesting year crusading against tyranny and whatnot.

Zachary Metzger and Nick Aylward: you have my heart...and probably quite a bit of material to blackmail me with. Jeffrey: Daddy is home. Mary and Lucy: you changed my life. Mom and Dad, you got me through hell, THANK YOU. Matthew and Dale, you don't need a goodbye because I don't think I'll get rid of you anytime soon. Scott, Greg, Gene. and Claudette, I owe you so much; thanks for the values you have helped instill in me. Felicia: you are beautiful, and you will never be forgotten.

I would like to say thank you to my parents, family, and friends. I'm extremely grateful to have had people like dragon, Ry-Dawg, Dalton, and Giardi to keep me sane, alive, and socially tolerable over the past four years. A special thanks to the latter two for accepting countless assignments (including this write-up) that were days/weeks/months/years overdue. I also extend the utmost gratitude and respect to the Cafeteria Staff. Keep on making French toast, guys! Remember, the best energy comes from a complete meal. Much love. Peace.

I can't thank you enough, Mom, for all that you have done for me; you will always be my inspiration. Thank you, Dad, for always being there whenever I needed you.

Beth, I'm glad you let me follow you around when we were little, even when I bit you and you hit me in the head, because you have always been my role model.

Marissa- You have always been there for me these past five years and I know you always will be. GG, Canobie Lake, Bowling, Sleepovers, Movie Nights, Quaddle... too many good times to list. Danielle- Thanks for listening to my rants, obsessing with me, and giving me some of the best memories. Sam- You are my crazy chica and you let me act crazy with you. Luv ya girlie. I wouldn't trade a single moment of these past four years for anything in the world. I've made countless memories and friendships that I know will last a lifetime. Mom and Dad, thank you both so much for being such a great support system, and for being behind me in everything I do. Tyler, you have been such a great role model, and such a strong support system for me. Thank you so much for always being there. To all of my friends, I don't know what to say, other than that you guys are the BEST. You have made high school such a blast, and I know that no matter what the future brings, I will be friends with all of you for the rest of my life. First and foremost, thank you Mom and Dad for filling my life with opportunity and love. You are the best parents on the face of this earth. Katie, Betsy, and Abbie, I've never met people as intelligent and beautiful as you three. Thank you for being perfect sisters and my best friends.

Also, thank you for being so hilarious. Not once has a joke I've stolen from any of you been unsuccessful. Ryan, you're the best. I couldn't have asked for a better big brother. To my friends who have become family, the people who I've called my best friends since elementary school, and the people who have recently become my closest companions, thank you. You all mean the world to me and I love each and every one of you and all of the memories you've given me. Class of 2011, we did it! Thank you for making the past 12 years happy, hilarious, and unforgettable. Congratulations and good luck with all that you pursue. Remember to always sing to the exit sign. \m/.

So, it's been thirteen years and my journey through Sacred Heart is officially over. That was quick. Mom and Dad, I can't thank you enough for supporting me and pushing me to do my best no matter what, I love you both. Ryan, thank you for always being there, and to all my friends, you guys truly are the best and I don't think I could ask for a better group of people to spend all my time with, I love each and every one of you to pieces. I really can't even begin to mention all the great times we had; I could go on forever, seriously. And to everyone in the Class of 2011, thanks for being crazy; good luck! Life goes by so quick, already we're done with senior year, and now a new chapter of our lives is open. To Mom and Dad: I really couldn't have made it without you. To Mom, for the hours of chauffeuring, and for sparing me whenever I made a mistake. To Dad, for making life an unpredictable adventure of fire trucks and death swings. Thank you to Mr. Morgan and Coach S for the best four years of athletics. And finally, to Rebecca: you fill my world with joy, and to Tracy, Andrew, Nate, Brooke, and Billy, my best friends.

Mom and Dad - thank you so much for the sacrifices you both have made in order for me to live the life I have experienced for the past four years; without your support I would be nothing at all. Anthony, I'm reaaaaally sorry for stealing all those kills in Halo, but someone's gotta clean up your mess; you're the best friend I've got and I'm proud to be your older brother.

Thank you Mr. Boccalini for always being there for me, whenever I needed it, and Mr. Foresta for finally teaching math in a sensible manner. Thank you Mr. Morgan for trusting and believing in me every season. Thank you especially Mr. Dalton, you're the best friend and teacher I could ever ask for; I cannot describe the positive impact you've had on me.

It has been a great four years. I've had many great experiences. First off, I'd like to thank my parents and my Uncle Gary for supporting me and getting me through high school and my brother for dealing with me. Coming to Sacred Heart put me on the track to excellence. Thank you to many teachers like Mr. Bocalini, Mrs. Dick, Mr. Morgan, and Mr. Olson, who all strengthened my abilities and Mr. Gray, my lacrosse coach and Roots and Shoots leader, you are a great influence to me. Thank you to my friends for all the great times and the things we did together. DC, MW, RZ, AZ, HW, WD, SZ, OT, and BW.

May the class of 2011 accomplish many great things.

A plethora of people deserve thanks here; sadly I only have a hundred and fifty words. So, first and partially foremost, I'd like to thank my parents, who I couldn't have ever gotten by without. I'd also like to thank Emma, who is, though I might not always say so, the greatest little sister in the world. On a more localized level,

I'd like to thank my other family, that is, Nick, Liam, Sean, and Evan (oh, and Kaitlyn too). You guys are more than just friends; you transcend friendship. A very special thank you should also be dished out to Molly. You really are the best, and most of toast. Lastly, to anyone else I've no doubt forgotten, thank you.

One of the more surprising things I've learned in my thirteen years at Sacred Heart is that it's apparently possible to end up loving a place in which you spend large amounts of time wishing you could leave. Primarily I thank my family for their love and support, without which I literally could not be here. And by "family," I mean you too, Evan and Felicia. I couldn't ask for better friends. Mr. Dalton and Mr. Rose, you have taught me invaluable things far beyond just English and history, respectively.

I would like to thank my family for all their support throughout these four years. I had a great time and want to thank my friends for all the memories.

I don't think Sacred Heart will ever have a better choir then the one of junior year. Good luck to everyone in the Class of 2011. No regrets.

High school is over. These were the years that we looked forward to as children, and now they are only memories. Mom, Nana, I would not have experienced these past few years without your support and encouragement. You have lifted me up when I was falling and supported me so now I can support myself.

Sister Alice Marie, you have brought together and constructed an amazing high school, teaching beyond the textbooks helping us to grow and become the best we can be. Lorelai, thank you for helping and supporting me these past few years. MeilleurRory, you have made high school a great experience, bearable when it wasn't. ZannyRory, you have made me realize to be who I am and never hold back.

"I'm thankful for my years spent with this family; for everything we shared, every chance we had to grow. I'll take the best of them with me and lead by their example; wherever I go."

Thank you to my friends for making my years in high school so much fun and enjoyable. I love you all and will never forget you guys. Next, thank you to my family for always being there for me and encouraging me to try my hardest and to believe in myself. Lastly, thank you to my teachers for teaching me everything I need to know to move onto college and for not letting me give up on myself when I struggled with classes. I love everyone; thank you all so much:)

I can't possibly begin to thank everyone who has been there for me over the past four greatest and most trying years of my life. But, I specifically want to thank my parents - you both have no idea how much I appreciate everything you've done for me in order to give me the opportunities I have today. Also, to my amazing best friend who happens to be my boyfriend, Matt - I don't know what I would have done without you by my side since freshman year, and because of you the future looks all the more brighter.

Mom and Dad, thank you for all you have done and given me over the years, and for always pushing me to do better and giving me the love and support I needed. Jake, thanks for being the big brother I could talk to and ask for advice. Suz, what would I do without you; you always make me laugh, and are there when I need you. Ab and Ky, you guys are crazy and full of energy, but make me smile. I'm going to miss you guys like crazy next year. And to all my amazing friends, you guys know who you are. I couldn't have done it without you. You guys have truly given me some great memories I will never forget. Congrats Class of 2011!

I want to thank my amazing family and friends. You've all helped me so much throughout my four years of high school and I'm forever grateful for that. I couldn't have asked for a better group of people to spend my high school days with. I'd also like to thank all of the incredible teachers I've had during my time at Sacred Heart, especially Mrs. Dunbar for pushing me to accomplish things I never thought possible.

“Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?” Mary Oliver, nature poet, said. Everyone always said that high school was going to fly by. I can see now that they’re right. To Mommy and Paul, you’ve gotten me through everything and I thank you so much for your endless support, patience, and encouragement. To Daddy and Gwen, you showed me what I want to do with my life and for that I thank you. To Becca, our crazy times leave me with so many memories and you’re my best friend. I love you all so much. Finally, to all my friends, you know who you are; I love you guys so much and I couldn’t have made it without you.

I can't believe it's time to say our goodbyes. Class of 2011, thank you for being my second family. To my first family: Mom and Dad, thank you for always supporting me and believing in me. To Charlotte, thank you for being my biggest role model; I love you more than words can describe. To all of my friends, especially Brittany, Sarah, Pam, Jeff, Aly, Jess, and Declan: I love you guys best. Thank you for the excessive laughter, the music, the speech tournaments, old silver, Walden, the wild nights, the quiet nights. I love you all to the end of this earth and I hope you find what you're looking for. Rock on, class of 2011, rock on. \m/

These past four years seem to have flown by. As I look back, I see how each then-seemingly insignificant event has helped to sculpt me into the person I am today. To my mother and father; mere words cannot even begin to describe how thankful I am for your unconditional love and never ending support in all of my endeavors, both on and off the field. Know that you have raised me well, and I will put the tools and life-skills you have provided me with to good use in the future. I hope to make you proud. To my sister Hailey; my appreciation for you both as a sibling and as a role model may not always be evident, but know that it exists. I am proud of you and what you have become. Jen, thank you for allowing me to introduce you to the delicious necessity I call the root beer float and for always being there when I need you. To all others I didn't mention here: friends, teachers, etc., thank you.

If it wasn't for my parents, I would've never made it to Sacred Heart. Thank you for this experience Mom and Dad, I appreciate it more than you'll ever know. You believed in me and my ability to succeed, which helped me achieve a goal that at times seemed impossible. Nana: you have been my inspiration, for that I cannot thank you enough. A special thanks to all my teachers who made high school a truly unique experience. I hope you all realize just how special you are. Congratulations Class of 2011, we did it! It is my hope that you all move on to accomplish your dreams in life, and as we go forth to start our lives, let us always remember what we have learned at Sacred Heart.

Elise Atti

Elise,

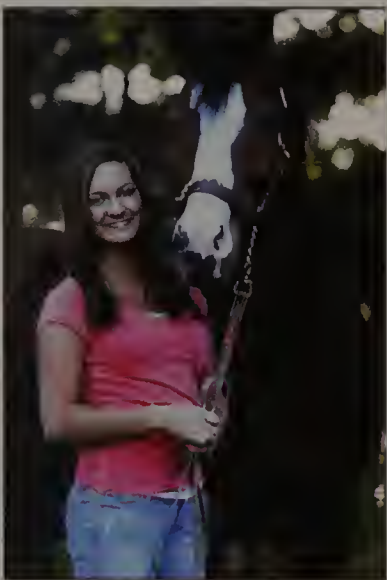

We are so proud of all you have accomplished and look forward to all you will achieve.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Chris, and Matt

Geena Boidi

We cannot believe that 18 years have come and gone, and you are graduating from high school. Although you've grown into a funny, beautiful, and wonderful young woman, you'll always be Geena Beena to us.
We are so proud of you!

Mom, Dad, Kristina, and Ron

Brittany Bradford

Brittany,
Congratulations! We are very proud of all your accomplishments and hard work. A loving daughter and sister with a witty sense of humor. Always smiling. Your determination and confidence will bring you happiness and a successful future.
Love always,
Dad, Mom, and CJ

Emily Bracken

Emily,

We celebrate your accomplishments with pride and eagerly look forward as you begin the next chapter of your journey.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Erin, and Lauren

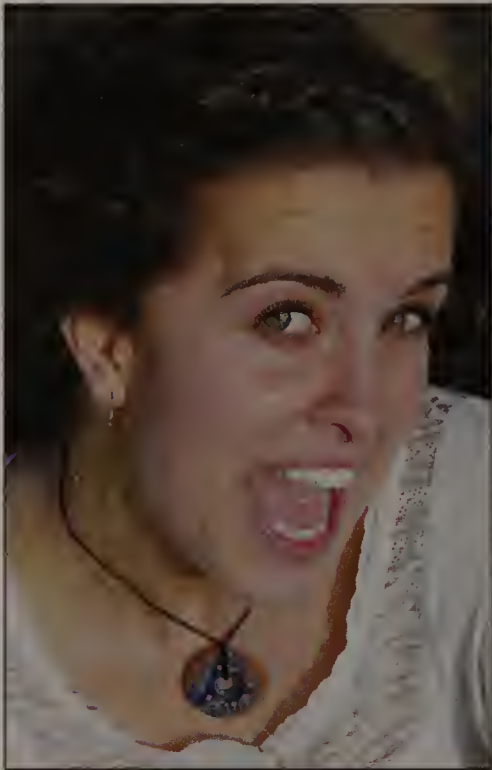

Courtney Buohl

Courtney Elizabeth,
On your first day of kindergarten, you bounced up the bus steps and never looked back as your mom and dad cried in the front yard. You have worked so very hard for 12 years and have met every challenge. You have such a big heart, a wonderful spirit, and you are also "wicked smart". Words could never do justice to express how proud we are. We love you, and as you head to college, follow your dreams and never look back.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Ky

Willie and Molly Dinardo

Molly and Willie,

You both never fail to amaze and amuse me. Since the first day you graced my life with your presence it has been filled with endless joy, laughter, and purpose. Any day that starts with Molly's resounding and genuine laugh or that brilliant endless smile is a day worth living. Any day that starts with Willie's melodic humming, drumming, or absolutely amazing voice is a day that will always be music to my ears.

What gifts you are to me, each other, and the world. You are deeply and sincerely kind and light hearted, giving, curious, and always ready for life's adventures. May your adventures continue and bring you great happiness and satisfaction.

Never forget these things; Molly thinking that John the Baptist baptized people in the Charles River (ask Sr. Charlotte); Willie falling through the ceiling of Mr. Duquette's office; both Molly and Willie believing that the moon follows just them; April Fools' Day ala Dinardo - feeding dog chow to your classmates in third grade; there are so many more they simply won't fit on this page.

I am proud, I am in love with you both, and I wish you EVERYTHING!!!
Love you to the moon and back, Mom

"When you change with every new day, still I'm going to miss you..." - The Stones

Matthew Donovan

Matt,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are a man of many talents - from academics to acting, singing, and playing the guitar; from running XC and throwing the discus to playing hockey; from sailing, boating, and fishing, to teaching and community service - your range of interests and abilities continues to amaze us all! The next step is college (and it's a big one), and we know you are ready for the challenge. Work hard, have some fun, and continue to be a good guy.

"Success is not the key to happiness. Happiness is the key to success. If you love what you are doing, you will be successful."

Declan Flaherty

"Excellence is never an accident; it is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction, skillful execution and the ability to see obstacles as opportunities."

Continued success Declan. With all our love,
Mom, Dad, and Devlin

Patrick Heggi

Dear Patrick,

You have grown into a fine young man of whom we are very proud! Keep your sense of humor and adventure as you begin the next leg of life's journey at college and beyond.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Erin

Dear Sarah,

Glad you made it! I wish you happiness, success, and fun in college little sis.

Love,

Molly

Sarah Fleming

Dear Sarah,

We have walked together as friends in the sun and in the shade. You can count on that every day. Congratulations on your successes! Your future awaits!

With much love and pride,
Mom and Dad

Hayden Dunn

Hayden,

Wow. Where have the past 18 years gone? Our #1 son and first to graduate and head off into the future. Words cannot express just how proud we are of you and the man you've grown up to be. You are a caring son and a wonderful big brother. You've met life's challenges with grace and strength and a good sense of humor. We know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do and we can't wait to see what that is! We love you so much! Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, Jordan, and Jackson

Remembering What is Most Important...

It's not having everything go right; it's facing whatever goes wrong. It's not being without fear; it's having the determination to go on in spite of it. What is most important is not where you stand, but the direction you're going in. It's more than having bad moments; it's knowing you are always bigger than the moment. It's believing you have already been given everything you need to handle life. It's not being able to rid the world of all its injustices; it's being able to rise above them. It's the belief in your heart that there will always be more good than bad in the world. Remember to live just this one day and not add tomorrow's troubles to today's load. Remember that every day ends and brings a new tomorrow full of exciting new things. Love what you do; do the best you can, and always remember how much you are loved.

Congratulations Annie on your graduation. You have lived your high school years with determination, spirit, courage, and optimism. You have always remembered what is most important. You are an inspiration to me and your sisters, and it's been an honor to be part of your journey. We love you and can't wait to be part of the next chapters of your life.

Love to you always,
Mom, Dad, Chris, Mike, Kim, Brianna, and Bethany

Goodbye is not an ending when you know that people care,
For miles may come between you, but good friends are always there.

Goodbye is not an ending, but a different start for you,
A start for making brand new friends and seeing dreams come true.

Goodbye is not an ending, for you'll find along life's way
Within your heart you'll always have a part of yesterday."

Maeghan, our wish for you as you graduate is:

May ALL that you are dreaming for in life be the least that you receive and

May God Bless You Always

We are so proud of you!

Ashley,
 Since the day you were born your smile could light up a room;
 your laughter, always contagious. We are so proud of the young woman you have become and of your many accomplishments.
 You are a good friend to your brother and a wonderful daughter.
 God has blessed us with you and blessed you with so many gifts.
 Remember to use them wisely, stay true to yourself and listen to your heart. May your next adventure in life be filled with smiles, laughter, joy, and excitement. Congratulations.

With lots of love always,
 Dad, Mom, and Michael-Mac

Erin O'Donnell

Congratulations on all your accomplishments! I'm so very proud of you, and so confident in what your future holds. Your passion for life, love of family and friends, and determination to succeed in everything you do has been an inspiration for us all.

Enjoy the rest of the journey!

Congratulations Maggie

It's a special bond that spans the years
Through laughter, worry, smiles and tears,
A sense of trust that can't be broken,
A depth of love sometimes unspoken,
A lifelong friendship built on sharing,
Hugs and kisses, warmth and caring,
Parent child, their hearts as one -
A link that can never be undone.

Maggie,
The day you were born, there was a double rainbow that appeared in the sky.
We all love you so much.

My boo, weed, tracykins, and traceface,

I don't think it has hit me yet that you are a senior, never mind graduating! Nearly every single amazing memory I have, you were there, sharing it with me. From when we were at Grammy's beach, flying kits and always finding stray cats, to now when we make treasure hunts and hide Easter eggs year-round. You have made the first 16 years of my life worth telling about! I will miss you so much next year and I know you, no matter what direction you choose, will be the best of the best and succeed! Good luck, and I love you tracer-facer!

All my love,
Seed, becs, and peanut

So do not fear for I am with you; do not be dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
Isa 41:10

Dearest Tracy,
Just yesterday, we were at Grammy's beach and you had crab fright. In the blink of an eye, you are a young woman going off to college and we ask, where did the time go? We have so many prayers for you.
We are so proud of you. You are the light of our lives. We love you!

Laura:

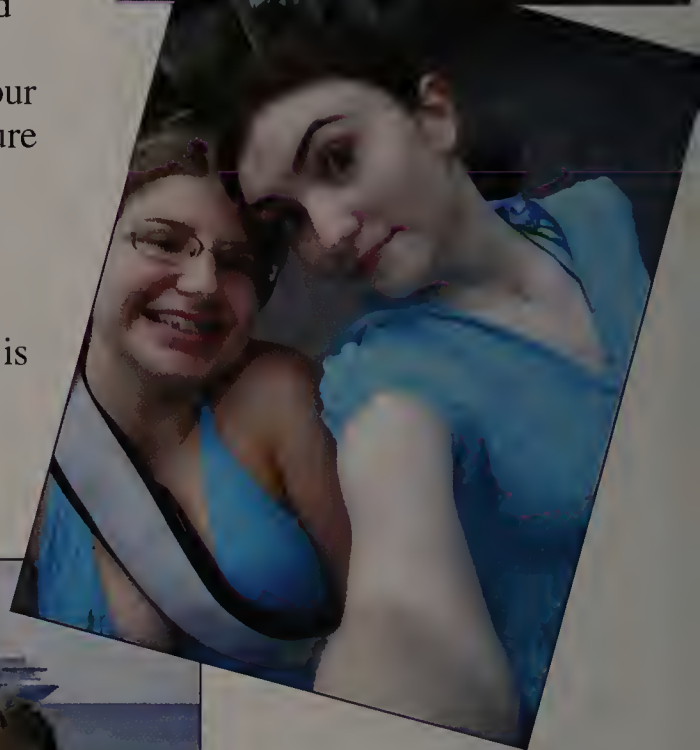

Wow! In a blink of an eye, you have grown up so beautifully. I am very proud of the person you are and of all of your accomplishments. Good luck at UNH- they are lucky to have you!

I love you! -Mom

I love you chica. I'll always be here for you. Remember, you survived Catholic school- now you can do anything. Live well, love with your whole heart, and have an adventure a day. I couldn't have asked for a better baby sister. Wishing you love, luck, a little magic, and a pinch of pixie dust.

Always & forever, Your Big Sis

Marissa Ellen Raftery

Dear Rissa,

As I've watched you grow from my beautiful baby daughter to a beautiful young woman, no one could be more happy or proud. You are a joy in so many ways. You delight us with your sense of humor and amaze us with your determination and strength. I am so blessed you are my daughter and doubly blessed you are my best friend. College will be the next stepping-stone to achieving your goals and dreams and you will succeed there because you are already a wonderful success.

Love you so much and congratulations!

Love,
Mom

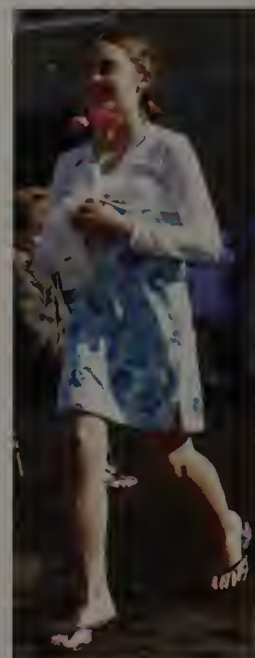

Dear Marissa Ellen,

No grandmother could be more proud or delighted than I am with you. You have changed from my little helper, toddling around the kitchen, to my big friend, helping me with whatever I might need. You have grown into a best friend and fellow bargain hunter (but you are still my little girl). I will miss you so much next year, but it will be such a wonderful time for you, I guess I'll let you go!

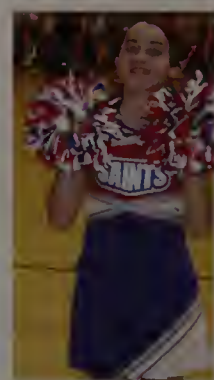

All my love,
Nana
